WORD HAS IT...From Your Library

The McNeeley Library is proud to present a special opportunity for our WSIA Club Members, and any guests with which they wish to share this website. Linen Hall Library, the oldest library in Belfast (1788) and the only subscription library left in Ireland, has recently digitized their Postcard Collection, which dates back to the late 19th century and covers the 32 counties of Ireland. There are over 6000 historic images available, which should be of great interest to our club members. Many small towns and villages in remote parts of Ireland are featured. They are making this collection accessible to an international audience. This collection can be viewed at www.linenhall.com/shoponline.asp

If you have questions regarding this collection, you may contact Monica Cash, Deputy Librarian at Linen Hall Library. The library address is: 17 Donegall Square North, Belfast BT1 5GB. Her email address is: m.cash@linenhall.com

The members of the McNeeley Library wish all of our WSIA members a very Merry Christmas and we wish for you a Healthy, Happy New Year.

Good health, good reading,
Rose Conley

The Ladies Only Reverse Raffle was a fantastic party!

Thank you so very much to all of the committee members, and volunteers for all that you did to make the evening fun and successful!

A donation was made on behalf of the West Side Irish-American Club, "Kay Forrey Ladies only Reverse Raffle" to the Gathering Place.

Have a Very Merry Christmas and a Healthy and Happy New Year!

The Committee of the "Kay Forrey Reverse Raffle".

LEARN TO PLAY "25"!!!!

Perhaps you've seen our articles about our semi-annual card drives and would like to learn to play. Well after dinner stick around and learn to play the game from some real experts. On Friday nights there's always a game going on (start time approximately 8 p.m.) and the seasoned players would love to pass this tradition to any interested member.
