WORD HAS IT...From Your Library

by Rose Conley

The McNeeley Library would like to remind you again, if there something you would like to see in the library, please let us know. Have you seen something at your local public library that interests you, something you feel might be of interest to our Club members? Please feel free to provide the information to any of the librarians in person or email it to us at library@wsia-club.org. You can leave a phone message for us on the Club's phone line or even write us a note – but please sign it. We ask that any item you suggest to us follow our library rule: All material placed in the McNeeley Library relates to Ireland either by subject or is written by a writer of Irish descent; This includes fiction, reference materials, historical information, biographies, music of Ireland, children's books with an Irish reference. The library is for your enjoyment; we want you to be a part of it by helping us choose material.

Mark your calendars for Sunday, Oct. 6th, @ 2:00 pm. Have you ever given any serious thought to the many canals of Ireland versus the canals of Ohio? This is your opportunity to learn about them from someone who has been there. Look for our complete announcement in the September Bulletin.

On April 21st another successful "25" Card Drive was held at the WSIA Club. Sixty-six players participated and after tough competition the winners were Pat Goggin and Tom Egan. For the first time in a few years we had two "Beginners" tables. Those "Beginners" were: Pat Allen, Carol Barrett, Kay Marvin, Mike O'Brien, Marnie Roznowski, Nancy Stanley, Rosemary Yirava, Bill Yirava, Katie Lavelle, Gerry Lavelle, and Owen Egan. The two teachers, who did a wonderful job, were Michael Lavelle and Steve Lavelle. A big THANK YOU to all.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS: James Cusick, Ben DiFranco, Dennis Duffy, Kathleen Goodrich, Karen Green, Tara Jascoe, Nick Jascoe, Daniel Keough, Annie Mahon, Alannah McCarthy, Shenna McConkey, Fran McConkey, Miriam Peterson, Robert Peterson, and Peter Swenton.
