So Long, Jim, you will be missed

By Peggy Calvey Patton

The candy drawer in the office will be empty; his pleasant greetings will be missed, but most of all we will miss Jim's smiling face. Always helpful, he was never in a bad mood as he worked on his numbers to come up with the monthly financial statement for the Club.

He loved selling tickets to just about everything and he really enjoyed it when one of the tickets he sold was a winner. His yearly Pig Roast with Josephine's sauerkraut was always outstanding. His drives for kids bikes and supplies for veterans was done every Christmas. He did so many other great things for the IA Club and his other organizations and he did it with grace, always a gentleman.

We honored him and his service to the club on the first Sunday of June. Approximately 200 members filled the large front hall. His American Legion Club presented him with an award for his hard work in their organization and his favorite singer Logan Wells sang his favorite songs. John O' Brien gathered all the past and present board members to join him as he gave a speech thanking Jim for all he's done for the club and when he finished the crowd rose to give Jim a well deserved standing ovation. It was a beautiful event.

Come back for a visit soon, Jim.

Jim Caffrey

Past and present WSIA board members.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for attending my retirement party from the Board of Trustees of the WSIA, and for all the lovely cards and well wishes. I received more hugs and kisses that day than some people do in a lifetime and, yes, I loved it.

Thanks to the crew who prepared and set up the buffet and to those who brought in such beautiful food and dessert trays. I will never forget your generosity.

Again many thanks to all of the volunteers who helped me throughout the years with WSIA events. Their success was due to your giving of time and self. You are truly the backbone of this Club.

We are so fortunate to have such a fantastic Club, which is an asset to the Community and to our Irish heritage. Keep it going for your children and grandchildren. All it takes is effort, friendship, and love.

God Bless All,
Jim Caffrey

Jim, Josephine, and family.

1st Irish, Bluegrass, Country Festival

at

The West Side Irish-American Club

Dedicated to Ben Clingain

The roots of bluegrass can be found in the music brought to America by immigrants from Ireland, Scotland and England. Ben Clingain, who was the lead singer for Bald Paul's Irish Blues Band, was from Ireland and he brought bluegrass and country music to our Friday night entertainment. He did all the bookings for Friday nights, and at the time of his death in June, 2011, he had a dream for a Bluegrass Festival at the club. We are making that dream a reality. To volunteer, or for more information, please call Ann, 440-238-4295, or Helen, 216-251-4075.

Ben Clingain - Family man, business man and musician

From his humble beginnings in Derry to his semi-retirement in Cleveland, Ben led a varied and hard working life. He was brought up by his adored mum and two sisters, and spent his childhood being educated by the Christian Brothers. He later attended Queen's University Belfast, where he studied, amongst other subjects, Latin! After his mother and sisters emigrated to New York he travelled around England, working on farms and as a bus conductor before following his family to the USA. He returned to England in 1970 and settled into married life. He started his own newspaper, which expanded into a small empire of newspapers and magazines in the late 1970s and early 80s. He had a great passion for soccer. He loved Manchester United and he played for local teams and also coached junior teams. He also published many books including books about golf and hunting. He returned to Cleveland in 2000 to settle near to his elder sisters, who so lovingly gave him so much as a young boy. In Cleveland, he found the time to pursue his passion for music. He played many gigs with "Bald Paul's Irish Blues Band" bringing joy to the residents of Cleveland's bars, clubs and nursing homes up until he died tragically in June, 2011. He left behind his sister Sarah; four devoted children: Elisabeth, Neil, Thomas and Emily; four grandchildren: Danielle, Mason, Oliver and Ruby; and two nieces: Siobhan and Tara.

WORD HAS IT...From Your Library

by Rose Conley

If you are planning a trip to the old sod in 2013, here is a website that you should check out: www.thegatheringireland.com/. 2013: The Year of the Reunion – known around Ireland as “The Gathering”, involves villages, cities, towns and people organizing and hosting a year-long celebration of all that is unique and special about Ireland. Just some of the events occurring you can check out on the above website which has a calendar listing all the events and dates: In July experience Riverdance in Dublin. Sept. 12th-15th, celebrate the 50th anniversary of President Kennedy visiting his homeland in New Ross, Co. Wexford. Also Sept. 26th, Guinness Cork Jazz Festival; so much more. Over 2000 Gatherings are planned. This is an opportunity to experience Ireland like never before.

Have you noticed the special window display in the pub? Check it out, the beautiful trophies the many groups of our WSIA Club earned at the St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Sneak Preview: Stay tuned for a special event coming this fall, presented by your Library Committee.

The WSIA Board of Trustees, Tim Sheehan, Brendan Mulloy and Thomas Mulloy wish to extend their thanks and appreciation to all of the volunteers who made the 5th Annual WSIA, STEPHEN L. MULLOY SR., REVERSE RAFFLE another huge success, raising just over $4500 for the club. A special thank you to McDonough's Brigade & P.T. O'Malley Catering for their continued coordination of utilizing the kitchen facilities simultaneously again this year. Once again Thank You to all of you, as we all know these events can not happen without your continued generosity. SAVE THE DATE FOR NEXT YEAR'S RAFFLE, FRIDAY, MAY 23, 2014. TABLES ALREADY BEING RESERVED !!!
