J Scott Franklin (Lost State of Franklin Band Member)

Performs in The Pub

Friday, June 16, 2017 at 8:00 PM

Scott has entertained festival audiences of 10,000 and clubs of far more intimate numbers. He has performed in Europe, Canada, the Bahamas and across the United States. Scott's music is an authentic and fresh extension of the Chet Baker era. As a songwriter, he has been featured on PBS's "Songs from the Center" and is the winner of the Frank Brown International Songwriter's Award in Gulf Shores Alabama.

Come early and enjoy dinner prepared by O'Malley Catering. Serving from 5:30-8:00 PM

STEAK SHOOT

Saturday, June 24, 2017 at 7:30PM

This is a fun evening. For those who haven't played the "Steak Shoot", it's easy, something like BINGO. A playing card is $8.00 and includes three playing cards. The caller calls out cards from a standard deck of cards. The first person whose three cards are called shouts "STEAK" and wins two 8oz steaks. A total of 60 steaks will be given away.

Bring your family, friends, neighbors, and snacks and you may be lucky enough to win a few steaks..

WORD HAS IT....

From Your Library

"In The Company of Others" by Jan Karon; review by Rose Conley: Many are fans of the Mitford Series of books by Karon. In this publication, Father Kavanagh and his wife are in County Sligo, Ireland, where Fr. Tim hopes to introduce Cynthia to his ancestral homeland. The good Father becomes enthralled with the history of Cathamore, a 19th Century Estate filled with history. Karon takes us between the past and the present through the Kavanagh's reading of an old journal they find. You might find yourself a bit discombobulated with all the names, very old Gaelic names. This is definitely an Irish story, probably more understandable by native Irish people, rather than we Americans. Although this is another very fine Jan Karon book, it isn't the same as reading the warm, comfy Mitford books with all the characters for which we are so comfortable. Fr. Tim still involves himself in the surroundings and the people, helping to understand and solve their problems. The author's characterizations are portrayed the same fine way of making us feel we know the people and want to revisit with them. Check out the book in the McNeeley Library and follow Fr. Tim on a new chapter of his life.

USED BICYCLES NEEDED

The Telephone Pioneers Recycle Program takes in bicycles of any size (however, 20" bikes are especially needed). They repair, paint and renovate them. The team then uses these refurbished bikes as rewards for children by giving them a chance to win a bike if they do well in school and meet the standards set for attendance, grades and citizenship. The program also provides the opportunity for students to receive hands-on instructions on how to maintain their bicycles from the team.

Please help encourage the children to do well in school and see that they are rewarded for doing so. Do you have a bike or two in the garage or basement not being used? Please consider donating them to the Telephone Pioneers Recycle Program. You can drop them off at the I-A or call Josephine at 440-333-4992 to arrange to have them picked up at your home.

Thank you—Josephine Caffrey
