steak Shoot

Come join in the fun on Saturday, April 23, 2022 at 7:00PM. Playing is easy, something like bingo. Cost is $10/card & it consists of three playing cards. The first person whose three cards are called shouts
STEAK and wins two steaks.

A total of 60 steaks will be given away. Bring your friends for a fun time and you may be lucky enough to walk away with a few steaks.

Feel free to bring snacks for your table.

For more information call Helen at 216-251-4075 or e-mail hcmalloy@gmail.com

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you said the kindest words, as any friend could say; Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so very much.

To all our friends at the I-A, and those who served as honor guards at Tom's service, we thank you most sincerely for your kind expressions of sympathy

Sincerely,
Kathleen Egan and Family

WORD HAS IT..... From Your McNeeley Library

The Proclamation of Irish Freedom - As you are enjoying your time in the Pub, have you taken the time to seriously take note of one particular wall hanging? Very proudly hanging on the right side of the Pub, before the large windows, in a black frame, is The Proclamation of Irish Freedom.

This very historical document was plastered all over Dublin on Easter Monday 1916, a single proclamation kicked off an Irish rebellion. It rallied against hundreds of years of British rule.

The Proclamation of the Irish Republic was read out in front of Dublin's General Post Office on April 24th, 1916, by Patrick Pearse. In the eyes of the British, Pearse and the other members of the Provisional Government who signed the proclamation, were working with the German Empire. During this time of war that meant treason and death to all who signed the document.

"The proclamation itself declares some basic rights, most notably the right of women to vote. In this aspect, it was very modern. In other aspects, it seems very old-fashioned, mainly due to the hard to understand wording of some passages. The 1916 Easter Rising may have failed but it left a huge impact on Ireland, and eventually changed the course of history for the entire country." 1

Good health, good reading,
Roseann Conley

The Board of Trustees would like to remind members and guests that the selling of raffle tickets, event tickets, fund-raising items, and any other items not related to a Club sponsored event is strictly prohibited. We have had a long-standing policy against this.

Let us all be mindful that the richness of our Irish heritage can only be preserved by fostering a family friendly environment in our facility. If our, or our guest's actions, language, or apparel are not appropriate for our own families, then they are also not appropriate in the presence of our extended family members and guests at the club.

You must be a current member to attend the General Meeting, please have your membership card with you.
