There is still time for you to volunteer to help spruce up and maintain the gardens around the club.

We hope this will spark attention to some of the younger members of the club who have a little more muscle power than the few that have been tending to the gardens in the past.. We really need some young men and women to help keep up with flower beds. Visitors do marvel at how beautiful our grounds are, so let's work together to maintain that beauty.

The current volunteers that maintained the gardens these last few years consisted of 3-5 individuals that would come out weekly to do the weeding, trimming and digging, and it is becoming more and more difficult to keep up with this task. We are in dire need for young help.

Below is a layout of the many flower gardens at the IA. We have combined the gardens in areas, hoping that a group of individuals will come forward to maintain that area for the season.

Please contact John O'Brien with your intentions to help.

Thank you

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL G.O.A.T. WEEKEND ALONG WITH MANY HAPPY FACES!

The Irish eyes were smiling, the pints were being poured,
the happy feet were dancing and the friendships are forever more.

What a perfect way to give the Saint Patrick's Day festivities a jump start!

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU to all who attended during the weekend, to all the entertainers, to our sponsors, to all the volunteers who contributed so much of their time in preparation before, during and after the event. You were all very much appreciated.

A special thank you to The Travel Connection for donating a round trip ticket to Ireland as an added attraction to the G.O.A.T. weekend. The winning ticket was drawn the evening of St. Patrick's Day and the lucky winner was Mike Gallagher of North Ridgeville - Congratulations Mike.

Thank you to the marchers, families, leaders, and everyone that made our units so amazing on 3/17!

St. Patrick's Day started off a little wet with the rain, but for the WSIA, it began with a beautiful mass at St. Colman Church with Fr. Ryan Duns, SJ as the main celebrant. After the Gospel reading, when he walked up the stairs to the podium, he looked out over the congregation and started to speak. There wasn't a set of eyes that weren't looking up at him. He caught the attention of everyone in the church. I'm sure this mass is something that the people will share with others for a very long time. Thank you Fr. Duns for celebrating with us.

At the parade, not only did we have an Olympic Gold Medalist with us, we walked away with a few medals of our own.

Congratulations to all the units and their leaders for a job well done and for spending their Sunday's over the past 2+ months practicing for the big event.

Thank you Tim Campbell, Tommy Campbell, TJ Campbell, Bernadette Campbell, Johnny McGowan and John Wanda for dedicating approximately 3 months of their time in designing and building the float. A job VERY well done!

Thank you to all the individuals who carried the flags and banners, and all who marched representing the IA.

A Hugh thank you to Katie Nageotte for taking the time from her busy schedule to be with us along with Eva Gorman, on the float at the 2023 St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Thank you to all the volunteers who kept the club in good running order before, during, and after St. Patrick's Day, there was a lot of time and effort put into it, and for Brennan's Catering who provided the fish fry/pub grub for the day.

We couldn't have done it without all of you.

WORD HAS IT..... From Your Library

Grab that pretty bonnet, get ready to enjoy the "Tea and Fashion Show" hosted by The McNeeley Library Committee, Sunday, August 27, 2023; 1 – 4 pm in the main hall at WSIC. Banyan Tree of Crocker Park will present the fashion show. Tickets for the event are $30 per person; Contact Jill Gallagher, H: 440-427-9356 or C: 440-623-6612 ; jillgallagher6612@att.net. If you have a favorite tea cup and saucer, feel free to bring it along and share the story of it with the group.

The McNeeley Library opened to WSIA Club visitors March 24, 2023 during our very popular fish fries served on Fridays during Lent. We invite you to stop in, browse the library, chat with the librarian on duty and maybe check out a book or DVD, whatever suits your fancy. In line with our opening, we are auditing our records and find material not returned to the library due to our closure. Take a look around the house, please. If you have material from McNeeley Library, please return it on your next visit to the Club. We would very much appreciate it.

If you would like to know more about our library, maybe you are interested in joining the committee, please contact the director, Midge Gannon at 440-686-0690.

Good health, good reading,
Rose Conley, McNeeley Library Committee
