Presidents Post

Sincere thank you to all the volunteers that stepped up to help create a memorable month-long St. Patrick's Day celebration at the club. Just a great effort to continue this wonderful legacy we have here at The West Side Irish American Club. From the kid's dance to the senior fife and drums, drill team and pipe band exhibition were just great testimonies of why we celebrate being Irish. Topped off with our GOAT weekend for our members and friends that showcases our facilities and our talented local Cleveland Irish musicians. We have so much to show and should be so proud!

Once again THANK YOU to everyone. We try our best and work hard to showcase our heritage and share it with the community.

Don't forget, the fish fries are continuing throughout Lent so make plans to try out for yourself what everyone is talking about. It is delicious! We would love to see you,.

WORD HAS IT..... From Your Library

A great memory story of the WSIA Club at our old digs on Madison Avenue; submitted by Alec DeGabriele.

"I believe it was the winter of 1974 the first time I went to the WSIA. Mary and myself, known then by 'All in the Family' were booked to do a night in the dancehall. I was nervous...had no clue what to expect. As it turned out we had a great crowd and lots of support from Mary Kay's family (O'Toole's).

I remember being introduced to many people at the bar, some who became my dearest friends. The Irish musicians, Tom Byrne and Tom McCaffery, had me come up and play guitar with them. Great guys! It was in those early years that I met Steve Mulloy, a past president of WSIA, and one of my dearest friends. Steve was so helpful in so many ways getting us gigs around town. I remember how enthusiastic he was about getting the young crowd involved at the club. He found a big old spotlight and would bring it to our shows! Standing on the bench at the other side of the hall he would do a light show for us on stage and all the gang dancing!! I also met Kevin McGinty, a wonderful man involved with the local theatre group. I could go on and on about the folks I met. I do know something for sure - that I was a very fortunate young man to have known so many wonderful people who molded me, helped me along the way right up to the present day."

Good health, good reading,
Rose Conley, McNeeley Library Committee

There are 77 majorettes, and Junior Pipers, boys & girls coming to our club for 11 Sundays from the first week in January until St. Patrick's Day. Why do they give up their winter Sundays to be part of a two-hour regime in discipline and demanding work-outs playing a musical instrument or twirling a baton or flags while marching in step? Almost all would answer that their mothers, fathers, grandparents, an aunt or uncle want them to do it. A few would say they want to please them, but it's really more than that. They know they are taking part in a beautiful tradition that honors their present and their past.

In this age of youth disengagement, taking a bus to a distant school, families moving to larger homes, broken marriages and other than the German Club, a scarcity of ethnic clubs, the parade practice has become a sense of an Irish community. It is the essence of belonging to something larger; the making of life-long friendships and a feeling of pride in the past, the tracing of parents, grandparents, and even great grandparent's footsteps in the St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Most of all the kids are really happy to be there. They love lining up on the first Sunday for the marching lines and hearing "go left", they love learning to play the old Irish songs, to twirl the batons, and flags. They happily sit on the parquet dance floor eating their hot dogs, marching outside on the grounds in the pre-parade drill and getting their uniforms totally completed and busing downtown for the parade. The morning of the parade is akin to a wedding with all the details and preparations coming together. The excitement and the exuberance seem to reach a pitch when they line up by the wrought iron fence to enter St. Colman's Church. They are as ready as they can be, in procession place, uniforms perfect, retinues learned and now the beautiful mass. The Mass is a blend of religion, heritage and ritual pageantry. The Catholic Faith and Ireland intertwined with the pageantry of the uniforms, fifes, drums, precision marching and old Irish songs. The procession at the end of the mass is incredible. The drums thunderous beat and the fifes beautiful pitch fill the large marble church as they march down the aisle beaming at their proud families. They feel Irish in every bone in their bodies.

The first sight of the WSIA Contingent turning into Superior Avenue cannot be put into adequate words, but pride in belonging to this organization is at the top of the list. We are the best, from the Guarantors, The WSIA Honorees, the Woman's Drill team, the Senior fifers, the Pipe Band, and the heart of our heart, our kids, all 77 of them. Thank you, lads and lassies for giving us another wonderful St. Patrick's Day. The future of our club belongs to you.

Spring is in the air

As April is approaching, how can we not think of Spring!

As I look out the windows at home and notice the flowers starting to appear, I also see the weeds and the falls leaves that have blown around and embedded in my flower beds over the winter months, and I am anxious to start cleaning up and prepare for the beauty that will follow. I also think of all the flower beds at the IA that will need to be attended to.

We are counting on those who helped to beautify the grounds last year to help again this year. With more help, it's less work. Please consider volunteering, as we could always use more help.

If you are interested in lending a hand, please contact the club at 440-235-5868 or by e-mail at info@wsia-club.org
