Presidents Post

Hard to believe that August has arrived. It has been said that once the fourth of July is over that summer is half over! Well, there are many activities for you to choose from out here at the IA.

Friday night food and entertainment continues, and our delicious annual steak roast is on Sunday August 4th. It sounds like Elvis will be in the house for your entertainment.

A big thank you to Dianne Luther for her devotion in getting the information gathered and then published in our monthly bulletin. An unheralded job that is done quietly and with precision. Much appreciated Dianne!

Once again and it cannot be taken for granted, a thank you to our Tuesday crews for all their tireless volunteering inside and out that somehow gets done and is certainly appreciated and does not go unnoticed. Thank you!

Many upcoming events are on the horizon. Don't forget about the IA's annual clambake!

Enjoy the rest of the summer!

DBC

WORD HAS IT..... From Your Library

As we continue with stories from WSIA Club on Madison Avenue, we learn more about the life and times of our Club in its youthful days. Some of those crotchty old members you see enjoying their beverage today in the Club, were the heart and soul of our WSIA Club. This month's story comes from one of the livelier members back in the day (don't tell, but he's a retired fireman).

Story submitted by Kenny Gilson: I was marching with the West Side Irish American Club in the St. Patrick's Day Parade sometime in the 1960's. I was behind an older Irishman and I wasn't paying attention. After the third time I accidentally walked into him, he was pretty perturbed with me. I then started to pay attention to where I was walking. After a while, I noticed that the old man's sash started to fall off his shoulder. I quickly grabbed the sash before it completely fell off him, but as soon as I gently placed it back on his shoulder, he turned around and whacked me across my shoulder with his cane.

I was shocked at first, but then realized that the old man probably thought that I was tired of keeping behind his slower pace and that I was now going to steal his sash in retaliation. Thankfully, the situation did not escalate any further and I woke up the next day with my normal St. Patrick's Day hangover. But this particular year, I had a sore shoulder to go along with it!

Good health, good reading,
Rose Conley, McNeeley Library Committee

The Board of Trustees would like to remind members and guests that the selling of raffle tickets, event tickets, fund-raising items, and any other items not related to a Club sponsored event is strictly prohibited. We have had a long-standing policy against this.

Let us all be mindful that the richness of our Irish heritage can only be preserved by fostering a family friendly environment in our facility. If our, or our guest's actions, language, or apparel are not appropriate for our own families, then they are also not appropriate in the presence of our extended family members and guests at the club.
