Presidents Post

How can it be November already. October was a busy month at the club and when November rolls in we have to focus on our Annual Raffle and supporting Heather Harvey and her crew at selling out our biggest fundraiser of the year. Thank you to those who have already purchased tickets and if you can, please try to sell some to your friends and neighbors. We need everyone to make this a huge success.

Our Friday night entertainment and food continues and much appreciation to the kitchen crew and all the entertainers who make Friday night at the West Side IA the place to be.

Thank you to the Tuesday volunteers who keep the inside of the club spotless and the outside volunteer crews that help make our outside looking great. Those leaves don't pick themselves up! As we say farewell to the beautiful flowers that showed off their beauty throughout the summer months with the help of all the dedicated gardeners who planted and maintained their respected areas and all that watered during our dry summer-great job. Thank you.

On behalf of the entire board at the WSIA we wish all of you a Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving.

All the best.

There were two trips that were enjoyed by members, friends and family of the West Side Irish American Club this summer. In July a group traveled to Ireland and in September another group traveled to Europe and sailed on a Rhine River cruise.

There were many happy hearts and hoping there will be many more future adventures to experience.

The annual WSIA car show was held on Saturday, September 6th with 60 cars in attendance. A good time was had by all who attended and Frank "Elvis" Worley performed another outstanding show.

I would like to thank the following volunteers for their help: Helen Malloy, Bartender Kaitlyn Corrigan; 50/50 by Mary Lou McNally, Christine O'Donnell, Jim McGuirk, and Peggy Patton; where needed by Pat Lavelle and Liz Lavelle; food handled by Kevin McDonough and crew, Dan & Diana Flick, Randy and Judy Murphy; along with my friends, Diane & Tom Hatfield on the gate, Diana Walsh and Susan Shaw kept track of orders, and I took food orders.

A request was made to the Board to use some of the funds to purchase a new washer to replace the one no longer working.

Thank you again for your support and especially our volunteers who made this show happen once again.

WORD HAS IT..... From Your Library

All of a sudden we find ourselves in the month of November; the eleventh month of the year. This very normal happening tends to make us realize we are almost at the end of 2025. Where did this year go? I am sure the rest of this month and December will just fly by as our families plan for celebrations, many traditional activities that come with the time of the year; some for organizations and some for family and friends only. Keep in mind the less fortunate people who do not have the same opportunities. Find a way to share your joy with those people.

This writer would like to extend an open invitation to anyone reading the WSIA Bulletin to help with this column. One of the subjects I enjoy submitting to the bulletin is book reviews. The basic guideline the Committee has about our library, the material should be about Ireland, fiction or nonfiction. The author might be from Ireland, or have connections to Ireland. The story line might take place in Ireland, or it might be about people of Ireland living in another country. Biographies are fine. You don't have to be a writer, just provide me with your thoughts in note form. You can write it and send it to me via email, text or telephone. You may call and discuss it with me; I'll take notes and make it into a book review. It should not be very long, space is limited in the bulletin. I will give you credit for the review in the article. You can show it to your friends and say, "See I'm published." Share your joy of what you read with us. We like material to come from our library, but if you've experienced a very fine read from another source, just let me know and I will cover it in the column. It might be something we want to consider for our library. My contact info: Rose Conley, cell ph: 440-821-2081. Email: peankid@yahoo.com. If you want to mail something; send it to the club's address and I will get it.

Good health, good reading,
Rose Conley, McNeeley Library Committee

Due to an event scheduled on Sunday of Thanksgiving weekend, we will be gathering on Saturday, the 29th to work some magic.

It's that time of year, the most wonderful time of the year, when we gather together to decorate our club for Christmas and transform it into a magical wonderland on Saturday, November 29th at 9 AM. Many hands make the workload light so please come out and support your club, make new friends and meet up with those you already know. If your children or grandchildren need service hours, they are welcome to join in too.

A delicious lunch will be served by Kevin McDonough.

The Board of Trustees would like to remind members and guests that the selling of raffle tickets, event tickets, fund-raising items, and any other items not related to a Club sponsored event is strictly prohibited. We have had a long-standing policy against this.

Let us all be mindful that the richness of our Irish heritage can only be preserved by fostering a family friendly environment in our facility. If our, or our guest's actions, language, or apparel are not appropriate for our own families, then they are also not appropriate in the presence of our extended family members and guests at the club.
