Presidents Post

I am Thankful for a great year at the West Side Irish American Club. I am grateful to all our volunteers, board members, and the general membership who make this club such a legendary place. Christmas is a wonderful time of the year to reflect and appreciate what we have and what we have accomplished. The club always looks great with all the Christmas decorations and all the December events get to enjoy the hard work of the volunteers (elves).

Flanagan's Wake is coming back again to the Club on Wednesday, December 9th. We had a great time last year and it was a lot of fun. Thank you to Sean Lackey for bringing the show back to the IA. We appreciate you and your talented friends from Kennedy Theatre downtown.

The Club is active on Saturday's starting with an Afternoon Singing Session with Pat McGuire on the 2nd Saturday of the month, Trivia Night on the 3rd Saturday of the month, and Steak Shoot on the 4th Saturday of the month, so make plans to stop out and have a fun time at the WSIA.

Finally, you can make plans to celebrate the New Year Irish style at the IA on December 31, 2026, and also please mark your calendars for the GOAT coming in March of 2027. Plans are being made to make it even better than ever.

On behalf of the officers and trustees of your West Side Irish American Club, we wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a blessed and healthy New Year!

All the best,
Dan Chambers

WORD HAS IT…..
From Your Library

This month's book review is for the younger group of our membership, the children. Both books will be in the McNeeley Library to help entertain the kids visiting the club during this busy time of year. We will not be checking these books out in the normal procedure; they will be available to borrow while you are at the club. You will be asked for a driver's license which the librarian will hold until you return the book.

Book Review: An Irish Night Before Christmas by Sarah Blazek.
'Round Christmastime, things are a little different on the Emerald Isle. Instead of logs thrown onto the fire, we find turf blazing bright. Instead of cold eggnog spiced just right, the mother and father are enjoying their stout. You'll find no Donner or Cupid or Blitzen, but Ould Neddy the donkey and his small cart. Father Christmas with his Irish eyes twinkling ushers in his seven elves, to enjoy the poteen and plum pudding and unpack his large sack. And thus begins the wondrous Irish Night Before Christmas. This humorous tale is the Irish version of Father Christmas's yearly visit. Told in delightful brogue, it will have everyone wishing "Nollaig sona agut!" (Merry Christmas to you!). Father Christmas, with his Irish eyes twinkling, ushers in his seven elves and thus begins this Irish tale.

Book Review: A Leprechaun Three; The Adventures of Ollie O'Maeve Mac Cumhaill by R.J. McCroft
While wandering through the magical woods one wonderful spring day, Ollie meets a new little friend. She's searching for something tricky, elusive and rare. After all of her wishing is done, can Ollie still help her find what she really wants? The prose flows with a playful rhythm. The colorful illustrations with plenty of the inhabitants coming to see what's going on, will amuse children and parents alike.
